

March 31st. 96.

My Dear Son,

I am very tired
having walked strenuously today. no
message from you today
you seem to have got terribly far away from me. It is dreadful
when each of us get into places and surroundings that are unknown to the other.

While you were at home, all was well.
But now I feel as though we were both
lost and could not find each other.
Had a long letter from Will - today -
he wants me to stop
on my way home &
see him. This has been a perfect summer
day - such languid
weather.

Forgive this stupid

letter and with a goodnight kiss
I will go to the land of nod.

Your Grace
